Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Attention: Deputy Director for Operations

Dear Sir:

Last November 5th, we requested the assistance of your agency to translate several technical reports written in the German language. The reports describe the process and results of a long term research project being conducted by the West German Government on computer recognition of handwriting.

We have since received the translation and I would like to thank the personnel of your agency for a very thorough and excellent job. No doubt, this was a tedious project for them, given the size and technical nature of the documents.

It is my understanding the following personnel were responsible for this fine work:

Chief, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

Chief, Joint Publication Resource Service

Contract Specialist (JPRS)

The translated documents will assist us greatly in evaluating this developing technology for possible use in connection with our protective responsibilities under Title 18 USC 3056.
